Licensed Optician and Entrepreneur*

I always dreamed of starting my own business. So, after retiring from the City of Dayton, I set my sights on making great-looking affordable glasses. After studying business at McGregor, I had the know-how to make it happen. But McGregor gave me more than that. They gave me confidence to step outside my comfort zone and take risks. My future has never looked brighter.

And my story is just beginning. Read more at mcgregor.edu/stories
